Fixed issues

Activation

When a user activated a BlackBerry® device immediately after an administrator added the user account to the BlackBerry® Enterprise Server, the BlackBerry Enterprise Server might have synchronized organizer data more than once. (SDR 358491)

BlackBerry Administration Service

The BlackBerry Enterprise Server might have stopped job reconciliation unexpectedly if the BlackBerry Administration Service singleton did not receive the close job message from the close job message queue. (DT 491377)

After you installed BlackBerry Enterprise Server MR1 on a computer that runs Windows® 2008, the BlackBerry Administration Service might have stopped responding. (SDR 332933)

When you run a cluster of three BlackBerry Administration Service instances with one empty group and two groups with 1500 members, create a software configuration with two optional applications to be delivered wirelessly, assign the software configuration to the empty user group, and then change the two other groups to child groups of the empty group, the BlackBerry Administration Service writes SQL exceptions to the BlackBerry Administration Service log files and does not deliver the two applications to all of the users in the groups. (DT 348590)

If the BlackBerry Administration Service - Native Code Container service on a computer that hosts the BlackBerry Administration Service is stopped for more than 110 minutes, the reconciliation process stops responding. (DT 450431)

In certain circumstances, the outstanding event count for internal reconciliation in the BlackBerry Administration Service was not zero and reconciliation was slow. (DT 502311)

When batching users during reconciliation, the BlackBerry Administration Service tried to create duplicate records for some users, which caused errors and stopped reconciliation. (DT 509538)

BlackBerry device users could not use chunked encoding when uploading files from a device to a remote file location. (DT 461732)

BlackBerry Attachment Service

In certain circumstances, the BlackBerry Attachment Service could not successfully process attachments that included special characters. (DT 438458)

BlackBerry Messaging Agent

The access control list for the BBTempMailBox.nsf database allowed any user who could access the server to delete the database. In this release, the default permission for the access control list is No Access. (DT 323757)

BlackBerry MDS Connection Service

If a user's password included special characters (for example, a colon), the BlackBerry MDS Connection Service could not log the user into sites. (DT 192247)

BlackBerry Monitoring Service

In certain circumstances, after you installed a maintenance release, the BlackBerry Monitoring Service did not start. (DT 366027)

BlackBerry Policy Service

In certain circumstances, the BlackBerry Policy Service could take up to 12 hours to process work requests. (DT 391803)

Calendar synchronization

In certain circumstances, notifications that meeting recipients had accepted or rejected meeting invitations synchronized to a BlackBerry device before the meeting invitation did. (DT 252022)

If a meeting series included a lot of data, the BlackBerry Enterprise Server might not send all occurrences of the meeting series to a BlackBerry device. (DT 342276)

When a user created a recurring meeting on a BlackBerry device that runs device software version 5.0, added a .zip file attachment to all instances of the meeting in IBM® Lotus Notes®, and turned off and on wireless calendar synchronization on the device, the BlackBerry Messaging Agent stopped responding. (DT 479877)

Instant messaging

In an environment that included Microsoft® Office Communications Server 2007, a BlackBerry device did not display unicode characters correctly in the Personal Note, Custom Location, and Custom Status fields. (DT 333275)

Security

If you turned on the Enterprise Service Policy and did not include a BlackBerry device PIN in the allowed list, the BlackBerry device could not regenerate the encryption key. (DT 314516)

Setup application

When you ran the setup application for the maintenance release on Windows Server® 2008, a permissions conflict might have caused the setup application to close unexpectedly. (SDR 319193)

When you installed BlackBerry Enterprise Server MR1 on a computer that runs Windows® 2008, the setup application could not stop the BlackBerry Attachment Monitoring Service and File Conversion Executable processes. (SDR 364395)

Known issues

3

When you install this maintenance release on BlackBerry® Enterprise Server 5.0 SP1 on a computer that runs Windows® 2003, one of the following errors occurs:

- Internal Error 2755. 1612, c:\Windows\Installer\9f7bb.msi
- The installation source for this product is not available. Verify that the source exists and that you can access it. (DT 481005)

Workaround: Visit support.microsoft.com to read article 925336.

When you install this maintenance release on BlackBerry Enterprise Server 5.0 SP1 with a local Microsoft® SQL Server® 2005 Express Edition SP3 database server, the setup application identifies the SQL Server process as being in use. (DT 483874)

Workaround: Stop the Windows Services for Microsoft SQL Server Express Edition, continue the installation, and then restart the Windows Services when the installation is complete.
